QUESTION 7

Our name, which has become a legend among the students for the highest standards in teaching, and hence has been copied by a lot of people across nation, for no one can match our quality.

- A. across nation, for no one can match our quality.
- B. across nation, no one can match our quality.
- C. across nation, but no one can match our quality.
- D. across nation and no one can match our quality.
- E. across neither nation, nor no one can match our quality.

Correct Answer: C

This sentence has an error by using an inappropriate conjunction (for) while two contrast ideas are spoken.

When contrast statements take place the conjunction should help them to differentiate each other as in the option "across nation, but no one can match our quality" the conjunction (but) does.

Other options use inappropriate conjunctions such as for/and/nor.
